

Effective Date: June 9, 2025

Please note that Outbrain is operating under the Teads brand, following acquisition of Teads in February 2025. Your contract will remain with Outbrain UK Limited until further notice.

These terms were last revised as of the effective date set forth above. Outbrain reserves the right to change these terms from time to time.

Teads Amplify Terms and Conditions

These Teads Amplify Terms and Conditions ("Terms") are entered into by Outbrain UK Limited ("Company") and the entity executing an Insertion Order or using the Company's dashboard ("Customer"). These Terms govern Customer's use of the Service (as defined below), and together with an Insertion Order (or the information entered through the Company's dashboard ("Dashboard") comprise the "Agreement" between Company and Customer. If there is any inconsistency between: (i) the terms of a signed Insertion Order or those entered through the Dashboard (either "Campaign Details") and (ii) these Terms, the Campaign Details as applicable, shall prevail.

1. Services

1.1 Company partners with a network of online properties (the "Network") to display a user interface containing links that navigate to websites. Company uses its proprietary algorithms serving methodology, and advanced buying tools to deliver ads on behalf of clients to relevant audiences throughout the Network (the "Service").

1.2 Company shall display links to graphical, textual, video, and/or auditory content selected by Customer on the Network. Such links, together with the headlines, images, and/or video that may accompany the links and the destination page reached from any such link, are the "Content". Company shall continue to distribute the Content on the Network until the earlier of: (i) the end date of Customer's campaign or (ii) reaching of Customer's budget; or (iii) the disabling of a campaign (provided that Company reserves the right to charge for additional Actions (as defined in Section 5.1) as the Content is removed from circulation – see FAQs for more details).

1.3 Company does not guarantee: (i) the placement, positioning, or the timing of delivery of any Content; (ii) clicks or impressions (including clicks from a particular audience segment); or (iii) conversions. If Fees (as defined in Section 5) do not reach Customer's budget, Customer's sole remedies shall be to: (i) subject to Section 2 below, extend the end date of the applicable campaign; (ii) replace or add to the existing Content with other Content; or (iii) to pay only for accrued Fees. In no event shall Company be liable for failure to deliver clicks, impressions, and/or views to Content.

1.4 Company will make reports available to Customer regarding the campaign(s). The final monthly reports (which may differ from the daily reports) will provide the conclusive basis for Company's calculation of Fees owed by Customer. Customer may submit their own Company-compatible tracker. If there is a ten percent (10%) discrepancy or more between Customer's numbers and Company's numbers, then the parties agree to work in good faith to identify the correct amount to be paid to Company. If the discrepancy is less than ten percent (10%), Company's numbers shall be conclusive.

2. Content

2.1 Customer is solely responsible for the Content. Customer has the right to and authorises Company to place the Content on the Network. Customer is authorised to use and/or has approved all images and words of the Content's headline (whether created or generated by Customer or on Customer's behalf). Content headlines and images must accurately reflect the tone and subject matter of the Content. To the extent Company (and/or integrated tools) provide recommendations as to the Content, headlines, and/or campaign, Customer remains solely responsible.

2.2 Customer shall not, directly or indirectly, provide Content that: (i) is obscene, defamatory, libelous, slanderous, pornographic, violent, profane, indecent or unlawful; (ii) is factually inaccurate, misleading or deceptive; and/or (iii) facilitates or promotes any type of illegal activity, including without limitation pyramid schemes, gambling, the sale or use of illicit drugs, or discrimination or harassment of any individual or group. Further, Content may not (a) redirect to a destination other than as originally submitted to the Service, and/or (b) be substantively different from the Content originally submitted to Company.

2.3 Content must comply with Company's Advertising Guidelines, as may be updated from time to time by Company. Company may at any time (at its sole discretion) reject or remove Content.

2.4 Customer acknowledges and agrees that certain Content may change during the course of a campaign (e.g., due to revisions by the Content's author, comments from readers, or otherwise). Customer's recourse in the event of such change shall be to direct Company to remove such Content from its then-current campaign and/or select other Content. Customer further acknowledges that, if there is an objection to the Content (whether from the Content author or publisher, or otherwise), Company will act in accordance with Section 2 of its Terms of Use and may cease (at its sole discretion) including the Content in the Service or require Customer to make changes to the Content.

2.5 Both parties shall implement anti-malware scanning processes of the Content. Upon notice, both parties shall take immediate action to remove any suspicious Content from the Network.

3. Term and Cancellation

The Campaign Details will set forth the start and end dates of a particular campaign. However, the Agreement, or an individual campaign may be suspended or terminated: (i) by Customer for any reason upon two (2) business days' written notice to Company or within twelve (12) hours through the Dashboard; or (ii) by Company for any reason upon two (2) days' written notice to Customer. During the notice period, all previously contracted campaigns shall continue to run pursuant to the Campaign Details, and Customer shall be responsible for paying Company for all Fees accrued up to and including the last day of such notice period. Company also reserves the right at its sole discretion to immediately suspend or terminate all or part of Customer's use of the Service if Company reasonably believes Customer is in breach of the terms of this Agreement.

4. Campaign Details

If Customer utilizes Company's Dashboard, Customer will have access to certain online reports and control over its campaign(s). To the extent Customer registers and has access to the Dashboard, Company may collect certain personal data of Customer. For further information on how we may collect and use our business partner's personally identifiable information, please see our Business Partner Privacy Policy. Company collects and processes this personal data in order to respond to Customer questions or requests, provide Customers with access to certain services, verify Customer's identity, and communicate with Customers about the use of the Service. Customer is solely responsible for all changes requested or approved (either directly or via Company's API), including those made through the Dashboard using its login. Customer is solely responsible for protecting its login and password to the Dashboard. Customer can manage campaigns using the Dashboard by modifying the Campaign Details, and/or Customer may have the option of working with a Company account manager, as determined by Company.

5. Fees and Payment Terms

5.1 Ads displayed on the Network are paid for via one of following payment methods: (i) cost-per-click ("CPC"); (ii) cost-per thousand impressions ("CPM"); (iii) cost-per-completed view ("CPCv") where completed view means fifty percent (50%) of the video Ad/Content is in view continuously from beginning to the end of video; (iv) cost-per thousand Viewable Impressions ("vCPM"); and/or (v) other desired actions agreed between the parties from time to time (each, an "Action"). A viewable impression is counted as viewable if fifty percent (50%) of the video ad is in view continuously for 2 seconds. Company fees will be based on the number of Actions, plus the cost of the Service (the "Fees"), which will not exceed Customer's pre-designated maximum budget. Customer shall pay the Fees as measured by Company's tracking system up to the maximum budget designated in the Campaign Details. Company may charge any applicable national, state, or local sales or use taxes, value-added taxes, or country-specific fees. If CPC is being used for campaign measurement, such CPC may not be less than Company's then-in-effect minimum CPC (which may vary by market). If Customer is utilizing Company's automatic bidding feature, Customer grants Company the right to set and modify Customer's CPC at Company's discretion to aid in achieving Customer's targets for its campaign. Customer shall be solely responsible for any additional fees incurred for utilizing third-party services on its campaign(s). For the avoidance of doubt, Company will not cover, credit, or reimburse any third-party fees, including, but not limited to, use of any third-party tracker(s) on Customer's campaign(s). Customer may increase or decrease its budget through the Dashboard or through a signed amendment to an Insertion Order.

5.2 If Customer has signed an Insertion Order, Fees will generally be invoiced by Company to Customer by the end of the following calendar month, unless otherwise set forth in an Insertion Order. Customer shall pay all invoices within thirty (30) days from receipt. Any portion of a charge not disputed (pursuant to Section 5.3) in good faith must be paid in full. If Customer has provided the Campaign Details through the Dashboard or has signed an Insertion Order and has used a credit card for billing purposes, Company shall charge the Company fees (including processing fees) to Customer's credit card at such intervals as Company determines in its sole discretion. The decision as to whether to allow Customer to choose between invoice and/or credit card and/or require a prepayment (prior to the start of a campaign) rests solely with Company. Company shall review all billing inquiries, including refund requests, on a case-by-case basis and reserves the right to approve or deny any request in its sole discretion.

5.3 If Customer disputes any amount on an invoice, Customer must provide written notice to Company (email is sufficient) within thirty (30) days of receipt of any invoice, or the right to dispute shall be deemed waived. Customer's email must include the amount disputed and provide adequate information to support any such claim. Customer may not withhold payment for any undisputed amounts, and any portion of a charge not disputed in good faith must be paid in full.

5.4 If payment is not made when due and not properly disputed pursuant to Section 5.3, Company may charge interest at the rate of two percent (2%) per annum above the prevailing base rate of Barclays Bank PLC from the due date until the date of actual payment, whether before or after judgment. Company also reserves the right to suspend or terminate any or all of Customer's use of the Service until Customer has paid all amounts due. Company reserves the right to charge Customer for all costs of collection, including collection agency and reasonable legal fees and court costs. Customer authorises Company to investigate Customer's credit record. If applicable, Customer agrees to provide such further financial information and documentation as may be required from time to time by Company as a condition for the continued extension of credit. Customer acknowledges and agrees that any account, credit card and related billing and payment information which Customer provides to Company may be shared by Company with companies who work on Company's behalf solely for the purpose of performing credit checks, effecting payment to Company, collecting debts owed to Company and/or servicing Customer's account. Company may, in its sole discretion, extend, revise, or revoke credit at any time. In addition, Company reserves the right to require immediate payment of any outstanding balance that exceeds Customer's credit limit and/or past the payment terms defined in this Agreement.

6. Additional Features and Terms

6.1 Company may also make additional Service features available to Customer from time to time, and use of such features may be subject to Customer's agreement to certain additional terms and conditions ("Additional Terms") (e.g., via an online click-through agreement or via the Dashboard). Such features will be provided at Company's discretion to Customer and may include fees in addition to those described in Section 5.1. Customer's acceptance of the Additional Terms will constitute a binding and enforceable agreement as between Company and Customer. In the event of any inconsistency between these Terms, the Additional Terms, and the Campaign Details, the order of precedence is: (i) Additional Terms, (ii) Campaign Details, and (iii) these Terms. Customers who choose to utilize LiveRamp services (via the Company's Dashboard or otherwise) for the purposes of their Company campaign(s) are subject to LiveRamp Terms.

6.2 Subject to Customer's compliance with Section 8 below, Customer may place on Customer's website, application pages or landing pages: (i) Company pixel(s) (the "Company Pixel") on Customer's website or application pages and/or (ii) third party pixels or tags (the "Third Party Pixels") for the purpose of providing analytics related to Customer's campaign, enhanced targeting functionality and/or creating segments (the Company Pixel and Third Party Pixels together are the "Pixels"). Customer represents and warrants that: (a) its use of the Pixels are in accordance with Data Protection Laws; and (b) it has provided appropriate notice to users regarding use of the Pixels, including an explanation: (x) that third parties, including Company, may use cookies or similar technologies to collect or receive information from Customer's website(s), and may use that information to provide measurement services and target ads; and (y) as to how users opt-out of the collection of information for targeting purposes; and (z) it will not use the Pixels on websites or application pages that target minors and/or contain sensitive categories of data (e.g. physical or mental health conditions). Customer shall not use the Pixels unless and until it has complied with the provisions of this Section 6.2. Further, if an end-user has opted out of behavioral advertising via Customer's site(s) (or a mechanism such as settings within an advertiser application), Customer shall be fully responsible for not loading the Company Pixel. Company may update, change, or substitute the Company Pixel functionality at any time in its reasonable discretion, provided that it does not disrupt the functioning of Customer's landing page and serves the same purpose.

6.3 If Customer utilizes third-party segments for enhanced targeting of its campaign(s) ("3rd Party Targeting"), Customer shall pay for its use of 3rd Party Targeting ("3rd Party Data Costs"), including any applicable taxes. Customer's invoice for each campaign shall include both the Fees and the 3rd Party Data Costs (if applicable). Customer agrees that 3rd Party Data costs will be based on Company's reporting metrics. If Customer utilizes 3rd Party Targeting Customer shall: (x) disclose this to users via an appropriate notice and/or in its privacy policy (as applicable); and (y) represent and warrant that its use of 3rd Party Targeting shall, at all times, be compliant with Data Protection Laws and satisfy the requirements for an appropriate legal basis for processing. Customer shall not, at any time, use 3rd Party Targeting: (i) for discriminatory purposes; (ii) to target minors under the age of sixteen(16); (iii) based on Special Categories of Personal Data; (iv) based on Personal Data relating to alleged or confirmed criminal convictions or offenses; and/or (v) otherwise in violation of any applicable law in any country where the campaign is performed.
